

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA

NorthEast High School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

School Year 2023-2024

Revision Date:

4/14/2023

In support of strengthening student academic achievement, NorthEast High School receives Title I, Part A funds and therefore must jointly develop with, agree on with, and distribute to parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement policy that contains information required by section 1116(b) and (c) of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). The policy establishes the school's expectations for parent and family engagement and describes how the school will implement a number of specific parent and family engagement activities, and it is incorporated into the school's plan submitted to the local educational agency (LEA).

NorthEast High School agrees to implement the following requirements as outlined by Section 1116:

Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under Title I, Part A, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114(b) of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).

-Update the school parent and family engagement policy periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school, distribute it to the parents of participating children, and make the parent and family engagement policy available to the local community.

-Provide full opportunities, to the extent practicable, for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under Section 1111 of the ESSA in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.

-If the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114(b) of the ESSA is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, submit any parent comments on the plan when the school makes the plan available to the local educational agency.

-Be governed by the following statutory definition of parent and family engagement and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with this definition:

Parent and Family Engagement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:

- (A) Parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning
- (B) Parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school
- (C) Parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child
- (D) Other activities are carried out, such as those described in Section 1116 of the ESSA

DESCRIPTION OF HOW THE SCHOOL WILL IMPLEMENT REQUIRED SCHOOL PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY COMPONENTS

Section A: JOINTLY DEVELOPED

NorthEast High School will take the following actions to involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs, including opportunities for regular meetings, if requested by parents, to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their child and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.

In the Spring of 2023, parents were encouraged to attend a meeting in which they could review and give input into this Parent and Family Engagement Policy, as well as the School Parent Compact. Parents were notified of this meeting through flyers, messages posted to students' Google Classrooms, as well as through School messenger (automated phone calls). This year, the parent input meeting was held on April 14, 2023.

Section B: ANNUAL TITLE I MEETING

NorthEast High School will take the following actions to conduct an annual meeting, at a convenient time, and encourage and invite all parents of participating children to attend to inform them about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program, the parents' requirements, the school parent and family engagement policy, the schoolwide plan, and the school-parent compact.

We will hold an Annual Title I meeting on Back to School Night in September 2023 where we will invite all parents to participate. During this meeting, we will inform them about the Title I program, the requirements of Title I part A, parent rights and responsibilities, working with educators, how to monitor student progress and information about the state academic content standards and Keystone Assessments. We will also provide and send home a copy of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy and school parent compact at that time. Parents will be notified by flyer, monthly calendar and School Messenger.

Section C: COMMUNICATIONS

NorthEast High School will take the following actions to provide parents of participating children with (1) Timely information about the Title I programs, (2) Flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, (3) transportation, child care or home visits, as such services relate to parent and family engagement and may use Title I funds and (4) Information related to the school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to the parents of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand.

Parents will be given the Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact during Back to School Night as well as sent home with all students. Copies of these documents are available in the Main Office. These documents are also uploaded to our website. Parents are notified about various meetings, assemblies and events during the school year through flyers and monthly calendars sent home with students as well as through the school messaging system. Parent meetings, trainings, and workshops are held at various times of the day to accommodate all families and their schedules. All communications sent home are in the family home language. Any translation can be made available upon request to the Office of Family and Community Engagement.

Section D: SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

NorthEast High School will take the following actions to jointly develop with parents of participating children a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state's high standards.

In the Spring of 2023, parents were encouraged to attend a meeting in which they could review and give input into this document, as well as the School-Parent Compact. Parents were notified of this meeting through flyers and monthly calendars sent home with students as well as through school messenger. This year, the parent input meeting was held by April 14, 2023.

Section E: RESERVATION OF FUNDS

If applicable, NorthEast High School will take the following actions to involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the 1 percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent by:

Each Winter and Spring, parents are encouraged to attend a budget review meeting. At this time, parents can give input into how they would like to see the 1% Title I parent funds to be spent. Parent Involvement Funds will be directed towards providing workshop services to parents, based on their expressed interests or areas of need. It will also be used to deliver information to parents. This meeting was held on February 2, 2023.

Section F: COORDINATION OF SERVICES

NorthEast High School will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities with other Federal, State, and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children by:

Actively maintaining a Home & School Association with an active School Advisory Council. The H&SA and SAC will have regularly scheduled meetings and will convene to make decisions on issues impacting students and families. Northeast also partners with a multitude of local organizations, business, and community partners to provide additional support for the whole family. TruMark Financial Credit Union promotes financial literacy and assists our students and families with opening credit union accounts. Bank of America also helps with opening checking and savings accounts. The in-school ELECT office provides services to students who are also parents, and their families. WES provides mental health services to students, and counseling to families. PATH provides behavioral health services to students and families as well. Multiple arts organizations we partner with have programming that incorporates families, such as the Philadelphia Museum of Art, The Print Center, Philadelphia Photo Arts Center, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. Academically, many of our partners support our families as they navigate high school, the application process for college, and even provide financial aid and scholarships. Some include, Philadelphia Futures, the UPENN Young Scholars Program, Ellis Trust for Girls, and the Villanova University Young Women's Initiative. Parents are also made aware of the parent resource center the district maintains at 440 North Broad Street.

Section G: BUILDING CAPACITY OF PARENTS

NorthEast High School will build the parents' capacity for strong parent and family engagement to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school and the community to improve student academic achievement through the following:

- Providing parents with a description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessments used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of the challenging State academic standards; and
- Materials and training to help parents to work with their child to improve their child's achievement, such as literacy training and using technology (including education about the harms of copyright piracy), as appropriate, to foster parent and family engagement
- Providing assistance to parents of participating children, as appropriate, in understanding topics such as the following:
 - The challenging State's academic standards
 - The State and local academic assessments including alternate assessments
 - The requirements of Title I, Part A
 - How to monitor their child's progress
 - How to work with educators to improve the achievement of their child

Various workshops and trainings' are offered to parents throughout the school year. Some of the topics being covered are English Acquisition, College Application Process, Student Information Services, and other topics to be identified. During the Annual Title I meeting, held each September; we share with parents the requirements of Title I, Part A, parent rights and responsibilities, the State's academic standards and state and local academic assessments. There are three report card conferences throughout the school year; November, February and April, with an evening conference offered in November. During these conferences teachers will discuss with parents how to work with educators and monitor their child's progress. These conferences also give parents an opportunity to learn more about the school curriculum and how to support student learning at home.

Section H: BUILDING CAPACITY OF SCHOOL STAFF

NorthEast High School will provide training to educate teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, and other school leaders, and other staff, with the assistance of parents, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between parents and the school by:

Surveys are made available to parents during all events, meetings, and conferences. They are also available in the main office at any time. The results of the parent surveys are tallied by the Assistant Principal who will share the data with the SLC leaders. SLC leaders share the results to the rest of the staff during common planning time throughout the school year. Common planning is held every Tuesday and Thursday. In the fall, staff will be trained on how to communicate and work with parents as equal partners by the Assistant Principal during a district wide professional development.

NorthEast High School will provide other reasonable support for parent and family engagement activities under Section 1116 as parents may request by:
